I'M A BASEBALL FAN.

I'm a baseball fan, bound for League
Park
To see the Grizzies play
With the Savages, that's goin' some;
And I am feeling gay.
The umpire calls the game on time.
"Play Ball," "and don't delay."
Our pitcher fanned the first three out,
And the band began to play.

Our boys, they now are at the bat;
Their pitcher, he did swear.
For the first four caused a walk to first;
But the next one scorched the air.
It went away out in the garden
Over that fielder's wing.
It brought in one, and oh! what fun
When the fans began to sing.

The Grizzlies they were rattled now,
Had surely lost their heads.
For the next one knocked a "homer."
And the fans did yell, "He's Dead."
We won the game so easily
That when the ninth was out
We all got up and clapped our hands
And we began to shout. WHAT.

I'm a baseball fan and I'm "Dinglee!"
When our favor'te swats the plil.
Then drives it beyond that center field
And makes that three base hilf.
Hear the grandstand YELL and the BLEACHERS tell,
That pitcher in the box,
"You glass arm Cad, we know you're mad."

You ought to be pounding "ROX."

Ritter singled to start the fifth. Griffith hit a line drive towards right that Lattimore jumped in the air and speared. H. Cochran bunted in front of the plate and Rapps made a quick throw to second and forced Ritter. Pownall singled to center and Cochran sprinted to third. Wares got a Texas leaguer to left and as two were down both runners scored. Graham was out, Roache to Henry.

According to Mr. Al Munro, the demon statistician, Cobb. Crawford and Veach are all batting well over .400. They hit in that order, too. and the carnage of opposing twirlers has been a thing of horror. The only "Ty" is leading all the league in runs scored, having accounted for more tallies than any two of his rivals.

In baseball, as in football, the same ninth inning drove in two runs and gave St. Louis a victory over Detroit. Weilman pitched great ball for the visitors and in addition hit a triple. In baseball, as in football, the same rule holds. The team that does the most scrapping usually wins the most games. In the gridiron sport the team that draws the heaviest penalties usually takes the big end of the score. There's a reason. Soak your head in Postum sop.
